

DEMENTIA AWARENESS WEEK

15 – 21 May

Alzheimer's Society
Leading the fight against dementia alzheimer's support

Wiltshire
Clinical Commissioning Group

Wiltshire Council
Where everybody matters

Events in Bradford on Avon

- Monday May 15 Dementia Awareness Day at Dorothy House, Winsley, 12:30-4pm
Details available at—www.dorothyhouse.org.uk/events
- Tuesday May 16 Dementia Friends Information Session
The Hub, Church Street 5:30pm - 6:30pm
- Wednesday May 17 Virtual Dementia Tour Bus at Wiltshire Heights—professionals
The Tour allows people unaffected by dementia to experience what living with dementia can be like. Hourly slots available.
Dementia Friends Information Sessions 10:30am, 12:30 and 2:30pm
All bookable via 01225 435600 / libby.miles@porthaven.co.uk
Free event. Refreshments provided
16 Cottle Avenue, off Berryfield Road
- Thursday May 18 Virtual Dementia Tour Bus at Wiltshire Heights— public sessions
10 minute slots for the general public. No need to book.
Dementia Friends Information Sessions 10:30am, 12:30pm and 2:30pm. Bookable as above. Free event. Refreshments provided
Cake Concert at Wiltshire Music Centre, 1-2:30pm
A dementia-friendly concert featuring the Bournemouth Symphony Orchestra Teatime Trio
£5 per person, including tea, coffee and cake
Book at www.wiltshiremusic.org.uk or 01225 860100
BoA Business Dementia Friends Information Session
5pm for a 5:30pm start. Ends 6:30pm. At the Fat Fowl, Silver Street
- Friday May 19 Trinity Café at Holy Trinity Church, 2-4pm (free)
Tea, coffee and cake accompanied by The Memories of Yesterday singing group. For people with dementia, their families and anyone who would like to get out of the house and enjoy good company.

You can just turn up at most Dementia Friends sessions, but to guarantee your space and for venue details, please go to www.dementiafriends.org.uk or call 01225 776481

 Dementia Friends
An Alzheimer's Society initiative